Write a decorator that prints the name of the function being processed and the number of its arguments.

Given a generic function `f`, `f(34, 56, arg3='lij', arg4=98745)` must return 'Function f is being called with 4 arguments.'